

A photograph of a modern, multi-story glass and metal building, likely a TU/e facility. In the foreground, several flags are flying on tall poles against a blue sky with scattered white clouds. From left to right, the flags are: a red flag with the TU/e logo and 'EINDHOVEN UNIVERSITY OF' text, the European Union flag (blue with yellow stars), the flag of the Netherlands (red, white, and blue horizontal stripes), and another red flag with a white diamond pattern. A semi-transparent red horizontal band is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the title text.

TU/e and USA

21 April 2026

Margje Geurts, Program Manager International

A lot of collaboration

- Research: many co-authored publications, across the entire country and incl. companies
- Education: only a handful of student exchange agreements, despite being a popular destination
- Birch report: USA identified as promising partner for future collaboration in the semiconductor domain—based on data-driven insights (Sept. '25)

Two ecosystems of interest

- Key areas of interest for semicon:
 - ✓ New York
 - ✓ Arizona
- MoU's between NL and both states on Economic Cooperation in the Semiconductor Sector (June '24 and Jan. '25):
 - ✓ Economic Development & Ecosystem Mgmt.
 - ✓ Research and Commercialization
 - ✓ Workforce Development

Activities

- Visit of NY State ecosystem to NL and TU/e (June '25)
- Return visit pending
- In development: MoU's with selected universities:
 - ✓ Student exchange and internships
 - ✓ Participation in Semicon Summer School
 - ✓ Joint research and projects, incl. with industry
- Potential visit to Arizona ecosystem in near future

A photograph of a modern, multi-story building with a glass facade and a red lower section, illuminated at night. The building is reflected in a body of water in the foreground. The sky is a deep blue. A semi-transparent red banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text "Thank you for your attention." in white. In the background, other buildings and a tall, thin tower are visible.

Thank you for your attention.